Shannon Johnson Kershner "For baptized women and men, being a part of the Church, Christ's body, is not just another optional activity. It is a call. The Book of Common Prayer (BCP) is the short title of a number of related prayer books used in the Anglican Communion, as well as by other Christian churches historically related to Anglicanism. The original book, published in 1549 in the reign of Edward VI, was a product of the English Reformation following the break with Rome. The work of 1549 was the first prayer book to include the complete ...
